Governing documents introduction

The way Falmouth & Exeter Students' Union (the "Union") is established and operates in law is set out in its Constitution. The current Constitution is based on the model CIO (Foundation) Constitution developed for Students' Unions by the National Union of Students (NUS) and approved by the Charity Commission. The CIO Constitution was approved by Falmouth University, the University of Exeter and the Charity Commission in 2021.

Alongside the Constitution, there are a series of Bye-Laws that have been adopted to add detail to how the Union conducts its affairs and how it is governed. For clarification purposes, should there be any inconsistencies between the two governing documents, the provision of the Constitution shall prevail. If any dispute arise in relation to the interpretation of this Constitution or any of the Bye-Laws, it shall be resolved by the Board of Trustees.

Amendments to the Constitution & Bye-Laws

9.9 Such a request will be considered by the Chair of the Board of Trustees who may:

- Uphold the original decision; or

There will be up to three official stages to the Students' Union's Complaints process:

- Local Resolution (Stage 1)
- Complaints Panel (Stage 2)
- Appeal Panel (Stage 3)

9.12 Once these stages have been exhausted, there is a further right of appeal to the University if a complainant or respondent (if applicable) is dissatisfied with the final complaint outcome; this is known as University Appeal (Stage 4).

9.13 Local Resolution (Stage 1)

The Chief Executive or their nominee will allocate the complaint to the most appropriate Sabbatical Officer, Committee or Head to investigate the complaint and determine the appropriate outcome.

At this stage, a complaint can be

- Dismissed; or
- Upheld, wholly or partially, with an appropriate remedy or penalty applied; or
- Referred to a Stage 2 Complaints Panel for consideration and decision.

If the complainant or respondent (if applicable) is not satisfied with the Stage 1 outcome they may request in writing, that a Complaints Panel (Stage 2) is convened, on one or more of the following grounds:

- Incorrect outcome was reached;
- Resolution and or/penalty was unfair or disproportionate;
- New evidence which could not reasonably have been available at the time.

The decision to convene a Complaints Panel (Stage 2) will be taken by the Chief Executive or their nominee, subject to consultation with the Chair of the Board of Trustees or deputy Chair of the Board of Trustees.

If a Complaints Panel (Stage 2) request is rejected, the complainant or respondent if applicable, has recourse to University Appeal (Stage 4).

9.14 Complaints Panel (Stage 2)

9.15 Appeal Panel (Stage 3)

The Appeal Panel will consider the appeal on the relevant grounds and may decide to:

- Uphold the appeal in full or in part;

9.16 Appeals to the University (Stage 4)

An appeal to the University must be made in writing to the University Secretary on one or more of the following grounds:

- Material procedural irregularity which rendered the process leading to the decision unfair;
- Material which the student could not reasonably have been expected to produce at the time of the decision taken in respect of the complaint casts substantial doubt on the appropriateness of the decision.
- The decision taken in respect of the complaint was manifestly unreasonable.

An appeal to the University will not be a re-hearing of the original complaint. The University will focus on whether the complaint was properly considered by the Students' Union under this Complaints Procedure.

Where any procedural error by the Students' Union is identified, the University can refer the complaint back to the Complaints Procedure for reconsideration.

The University Secretary will reserve recommendations as to a complaint outcome for appeals where the Students' Union's decision is found to be unlawful or unreasonable.

The decision of the University Secretary is final and cannot be challenged via this Complaints Procedure.

9.17 Outcomes, Remedies and Penalties

The following outcomes are available at procedural stages 1-3:

- A complaint is wholly upheld;
- A complaint is partially upheld;
- A complaint is dismissed.

- The complainant and respondent are required to participate in training and/or mediation and conflict resolution;

9.19 Where a complaint relates to the conduct of a student of the University, the additional penalties are available at Stages 1 - 3:

- Caution on future conduct;
- A letter of concern;
- Full or partial ban from, or access to, Students' Union building, licensed premises, services, events and/or activities for a prescribed period;

9.20 Temporary Measures

In order to protect the Students' Union or any of its members or staff, the Chief Executive can exclude any student from all or any premises, services and activities pending consideration of a complaint under the Bye-Laws. Any exclusion will be subject to regular review.

The Chief Executive may only take such action if, in their opinion, it is necessary to protect the Students' Union or any of its members or employees.

9.21 Timeframes

The Students' Union aims to deal with complaints within the following time limits and will keep parties notified if more time is required.

Complaints will usually be assessed and a written response issued within two weeks of receipt.

Where a complaint is dealt with via Informal Resolution (Stage 1), a written outcome will usually be provided within 4 weeks of allocation.

Where a complaint is dealt with by Complaints Panel (Stage 2) or Appeal Panel (Stage 3):

- The Panel will usually be convened within 6 weeks of the referral or request;
- All parties will usually receive a least 2 weeks notice of the date of the hearing;
- All parties will be required to submit any evidence or details of witnesses they wish to rely on at least 1 week in advance of the hearing;
- The outcome will usually be notified in writing within 1 week of the hearing date.

The complainant and respondent will usually have two weeks in which to challenge or appeal a decision at any official stage of the Complaints Procedure.

Complaints may be heard during university vacations, during which time the deadlines may be extended.

If a Full Member has been excluded from candidacy for elected office, the respondent may appeal specifically against this penalty outside the usual time limits:

The appeal may only be submitted on the grounds that the penalty was inappropriate to the offence for which the respondent was found responsible.

It must be submitted at least one month before the close of nominations for the post(s) for which the respondent wishes to stand.

If assessed as applicable, the appeal will be considered by an Appeal Panel (Stage 3) but time limits for notice and evidence may be shorter than usual.

The member may not be given an extension of any election deadlines as a result of such an appeal.

9.22 General Arrangement for Panels

Selecting the Panel

Panel members will be drawn from a pool made up of Student Representatives, members of the current Sabbatical Officer team and the current staff team.

A Complaints Panel will consist of two student representatives, including at least one Sabbatical Officer and one member of staff. The staff member will also have a role in advising the process.

An Appeal Panel will consist of two student representatives, including at least one full time Sabbatical Officer who is acting in their capacity as Trustee of the Students' Union and the Chief Executive. The Chief Executive will also have a role in advising the process.

All Panels will be chaired by a Sabbatical Officer;

All panel members will be selected ensuring there is no conflict of interest. Any party may request reconsideration of any Panel member on the grounds of partiality or conflict of interest. Such a request shall be considered by the Panel Chair and their decision shall be final.

In specific and conflicted circumstances, an independent person or an individual from NUS (National Union of Students) may make up part of the panel.

9.23 Submitting Evidence

Statements and other evidence (including witnesses attending the hearing) may be submitted to a Panel, with all such information shared with all relevant parties prior to the hearing;

Arrangements for notifying witnesses of a Panel hearing will be the responsibility of the person who has requested their attendance;

Any information previously considered at earlier stages will be provided, as evidence, to a Panel hearing;

The Panel may request the input of Students' Union staff and external experts where necessary to fully consider the case;

No information about previous offences will be considered until and unless the complaint is upheld.

9.24 Attendance at the Hearing

Complainants or respondents may be accompanied by a Full Member who may speak on their behalf, but may not have external or legal representation;

A Panel hearing can be adjourned if a request is made to the Chair, by any party or Panel member, in order to consider further information, hear further witnesses or allow extra time for other reasons. Such agreement will not be unreasonably withheld and the Chair shall determine the length of the adjournment;

If the complainant or respondent and/or their representative fails to attend the hearing, the Panel may proceed with the hearing or adjourn for a reasonable period.

9.25 Making a decision

The panel will first determine the outcome of the case;

If the outcome is to uphold the complaint, the Panel will be informed of any previous offences. In such instances, the respondent will be given the opportunity to make a statement to the Panel before a decision is reached on the remedies or penalties imposed;

The Panel will then consider what remedies and penalties to set in place.

9.26 A Panel hearing will operate in accordance with the following procedures:

- The Chair will introduce all present, outline what will happen in the hearing, and ensure everyone understands the purpose of the hearing;
- The complainant or appellant will present their case and introduce any supporting statements and/or witnesses;
- There will be an opportunity for the members of the Panel and the respondent (if applicable) to question the complainant or appellant and any witnesses;
- The respondent (If applicable) will present their case and may introduce any supporting statements and/or witnesses;
- There will then be an opportunity for members of the Panel and the complainant or to question the respondent (if applicable);
- Any external experts or Students' Union staff called by the Panel will be heard;
- The complainant will be given the opportunity to make a final statement;
- The respondent (if applicable) will be given the opportunity to make a final statement;
- The complainant and respondents (if applicable) will be asked to leave the room to allow the Panel to make a decision;
- The decision will be notified to all parties in writing, including information about further rights of appeal.
- Where relevant, case precedents will be recorded and may be referred to in future Complaints Panel and Appeal Panel hearings.

9.27 A written summary of proceedings will be taken and made available to the complaint or respondent on request. Such information will be confidential but the Panel may publish its decision in such a way as it determines.

Bye Law 10: Disciplinary Procedure & Appeals (student members)

10.1 Introduction

Falmouth and Exeter Students' Union's Code of Conduct has authority over any premises managed by the Union, any Union activities, including the activities of any Union Club or Union Student Group or any misconduct which takes place outside Union premises but is connected with the Students' Union and is likely to affect the reputation of the Union.

It may be necessary in the interest of relevant parties to suspend an individual or group from participation in any Students' Union activities including the activities of any Union Club or Society pending the outcomes of a Stage 3 disciplinary hearing.

This procedure has not been written as a replacement for common law; if any criminal offence has been committed normally they should be referred to the appropriate authorities. However, if an individual/group is subject to a criminal investigation it does also mean that appropriate action using this procedure may be taken and this can run concurrently.

There are 3 stages in the disciplinary procedure:

- Stage 1 Informal
- Stage 2 Members Disciplinary Committee
- Stage 3 Members Disciplinary Hearing.

10.2 Disciplinary Procedure

Stage 1 - Informal

We expect that most issues will be resolved via an informal discussion about the matter at the earliest opportunity. A student or other person should therefore bring the matter to the attention of the Manager of the service, or Officer Trustee responsible for the area in question. If the breach is serious, they will be advised of this and the process will then proceed to Stage 2 - Members Disciplinary Committee.

Stage 2 - Members Disciplinary Committee

If any member of the Students' Union is deemed to have breached the rules of the Union, and their conduct has not been able to be addressed through an informal approach (Stage 1), or the breach is considered to be serious, they will be advised of this and their conduct shall be examined by a panel consisting of the following:

- 1 Union Senior Leader or Head
- 1 Sabbatical Officer (shall not be the Chair of the Board of Trustees)
- 1 Union Manager

This panel shall be known as the Members Disciplinary Committee.

No individual shall sit on the Members Disciplinary Committee or Appeals Committees or any other Committee regarding the complaint if they are a witness, potential witness, the complainant or directly connected with the complainant or individual or group being charged.

The Members Disciplinary Committee will decide whether the matter is resolved as:

- not substantiated
- not proven
- informal advice given
- recorded warning
- referred to Members Disciplinary Hearing (Stage 3).

The Members Disciplinary Committee may refer any matter to either Falmouth University or the University of Exeter, or any other appropriate body as it sees necessary.

The Students' Union must inform the individual/ group of the outcome and of their right of appeal in the light of additional information or evidence. Any appeal should be made in writing to Falmouth and Exeter Students' Union Chair of the Trustee Board within 10 working days.

Stage 3 - Members Disciplinary Hearing

In the event of the decision to proceed to a Members Disciplinary Hearing a panel shall normally aim to hear such a case within 20 working days of notification.

The individual/group will be notified in writing of the allegations and a copy of the Code of Conduct and Bye Law 10: Disciplinary & Appeals (student members) will be provided.

All incidents above stage 2 disciplinary hearing guidelines will be reported to the relevant University who may also invoke the Universities own disciplinary procedures for students.

The panel holding the Members Disciplinary Hearing will have access to all evidence, papers and identify and summon witnesses and conduct other enquiries as it may think fit.

The panel will consist of 5 persons, with equal attendance from both staff and representative roles with a quorum of 4:

- 1 Union Senior Leader or Head
- Normally the Vice President (Chair)
- 1 Union Manager
- 2 Part-Time Officers

This panel shall be known as the Members Disciplinary Panel and will normally be chaired by the Vice President. All administrative support including organisation, communications and minutes will be provided by a member of Students' Union staff.

Any panel member with an affiliation to or conflict of interest with the individual/group under review must declare this before agreeing to sit on the panel and may be asked to relinquish their position for the duration of the related hearing.

In this case a suitable replacement will sit on the panel in their place.

The Members Disciplinary Panel should hear all aspects of the disciplinary matter, including hearing and asking questions of:

- the individual or group bringing the charge (or their representative)
- the individual or group subject to the charge (or their representative)
- any witnesses called by either party

Witnesses may be called by:

- The Members Disciplinary Panel
- The individual or group or his/her representative bringing the charge,
- The individual or group subject to the charge (or their representative)

Witness may give evidence and present any relevant documents to the panel.

Based on the evidence presented, the Members Disciplinary Panel shall then deliberate on the matter and decide on the appropriate action to be taken.

Evidence of any earlier misconduct shall not be presented until after the decision has been reached on the facts of the case, but then may be admitted and considered in deciding on any punishment.

The ultimate sanction shall be the suspension of Students' Union membership.

The hearing shall take place in private and a record shall be made; these shall be kept and used in any appeal.

The panel may refer any matter to the relevant University or Universities line with the guidance in Falmouth University's Student Code of Conduct or The University of Exeter General Regulations for Students

Outcomes of the disciplinary hearing will be:

- not substantiated,
- not proven,
- proven

Penalties of the disciplinary hearing can include {further guidance in the Code of Conduct):

- informal advice given,
- recorded warning,
- Group or individual suspension (Note: Whilst under suspension no member will be excluded from the Union Advice Service or access to Advice and Representation from the Students' Union).
- Life ban from Union activities

Where a Group is disciplined it will be on the basis that a percentage of its members were collectively involved. If an allegation is made against the whole Group and involves at least 20% of its members, then the Union reserve the right to take group action.

Any complaint could begin its journey at any of the above stages.

10.3 Appeals

The Members Disciplinary Panel must inform the individual or group of their right of appeal and that any appeal should be made in writing to the Chair of the Board of Trustees within 10 working days.

The grounds of the appeal should be detailed and will normally include one or more of the following headings:

- a) procedural error

- b) new evidence which could not have been made available at the Hearing
- c) unfair or perverse decision by Disciplinary Panel
- d) severity of the decision

If there are grounds for an appeal the Chair of the Board of Trustees will convene and Chair a Members Appeals Committee. This committee will be made up of:

- President (who is Chair of the Board of Trustees)
- the Chair of the Union Council
- the Union Chief Executive or Deputy Chief Executive.

All must not have been involved in the original Members Disciplinary Committee. Where this is not possible, due to conflict of interest or other reason(s), any vacant place on the Members Appeals Committee will be filled by a member of the Union Council as appointed by the Union Chair of the Board of Trustees.

The individual shall be notified in writing at least 10 working days in advance of the Members Appeals Committee meeting.

The Members Appeals Committee shall review the reason for the appeal and the rationale behind the original decision. They shall also review any new evidence that has emerged since the disciplinary meeting. The matter shall be put to a vote and the decision shall be final.

The hearing shall take place in private and a record shall be made.

If the individual is still dissatisfied, then they may refer their final appeal to the Union Board of Trustees. A review will be led by one Lay Trustee and one other Trustee not previously included and their decision shall be final.
